

The Lost Sheep

(Finbar O'Connor)

1

The poor little sheep, he started to weep,
All lost and alone in the world,
He didn't cry "Mummy", he didn't cry "Mum",
He just started bleating as loud as he could,
"Baa, baa, baa, I've lost my mama, maa, maa,
Baa, baa, baa, I've lost my mama".

2

Back home in the shed, the mother sheep said,
"My baby is not by my side."
She didn't cry "Sonny", she didn't cry "son",
She just started bleating and here's what she cried,
"Maa, maa, maa, I've lost my baba, baa, baa,
Maa, maa, maa, I've lost my baba".

3

The shepherd came in and said with a grin,
"See mother, I've brought home your boy!"
She didn't cry "Sonny", he didn't cry "Mum",
They just started bleating aloud in their joy,
"Maa, maa, maa, I've found my baba, baa, baa,
Baa, baa, baa, I've lost my mama".
